SUMMARY

Set in the heart of Denbigh, adjacent to the historic castle walls and within walking distance of the town centre, this spacious three-bedroom detached house offers character, convenience and a great family home.

The accommodation comprises: entrance porch, welcoming hallway, a generous lounge with scope to create two separate sitting areas, a newly fitted kitchen, and a dining room. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern bathroom. One bedroom benefits from a private balcony boasting spectacular views over Denbigh town, the Clwydian Range, and beyond.

The property has been partially renovated throughout, including a brand-new kitchen, bathroom, and updated light fittings. This allows the incoming buyer the opportunity to add the final touches with flooring, decoration, and garden landscaping to suit personal style.

Externally, the home enjoys a front garden with a pathway leading to the main entrance, side access to the rear, and a partially finished rear garden with potential for lawn or paved patio. There are also two off-road parking spaces.

Offered with no onward chain, this property is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a modernised home in a prime location with stunning views.
