IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd feel instantly at home thanks to the considered decor and contemporary fittings, while the exciting neighbourhood would give you plenty to explore.

The reception room is filled with natural light and features bespoke shutters, while the kitchen and bathroom blend traditional charm with contemporary style. The bedroom is bright and spacious, with a soft, welcoming feel.

Beyond your front door, there's something to discover in every direction. A few minutes' walk takes you to Orford Road and the heart of Walthamstow Village, where you'll find much-loved pubs including the Queens Arms and the Nags Head, alongside Eat 17, famously dubbed London's 'poshest Spar' by the Evening Standard.

Closer to home, Hoe Street is a great spot for your morning coffee and something sweet, with artisan bakeries Crumbs and Suba both nearby. Head towards Walthamstow Central and you'll find even more tempting options, including ramen favourite Tonkotsu and sourdough specialist Today Bread.

Transport links are excellent, with Walthamstow Central providing Victoria line and Weaver Overground services, and Walthamstow Queen's Road offering access to the Suffragette line. Local buses are plentiful, too, with the 55 and 56 providing routes towards central London via Hackney.

WHAT ELSE?
- Despite being in such a cosmopolitan hub, you're surrounded by excellent green space; Thomas Gamuel park is a short hop away, where you'll find rolling lawns, sport facilities and an excellent playground. You've also got Lloyd Park, which houses the William Morris Gallery, Fellowship Square, with its impressive fountains, and Hollow Ponds, at the cusp of Epping Forest, a heartier stroll away.
- A short walk south takes you to the Leyton Midland Road arches, home to a thriving foodie scene. Favourites include Burnt, Gravity Well Taproom and Chop Shop Tavern.
- Just to give you even more choice, you'll want to add the unique Ravenswood Industrial Estate to your list of places to visit - it's home to the ever-popular God's Own Junkyard, as well as Pillars Brewery, Malt Haus and gin palace Mother's Ruin.
