Property Introduction

Situated in the popular village of Lanner and offered for sale with no onward chain, this light and spacious two double bedroom detached bungalow occupies an elevated position, enjoying beautiful views over the surrounding countryside.

The property has undergone a series of improvements to include new double glazing, radiators and refitted bathroom and offers generous and versatile accommodation consisting of a spacious kitchen/breakfast room, lounge and a large sunroom providing valuable additional living space. There are also two generous double bedrooms and a recently modernised bathroom.

To the outside, the property benefits from front and rear gardens, a private driveway providing parking for up to four cars and a garage/workshop divided into three useful sections. The property enjoys wonderful views, especially from the elevated decking leading off from the sunroom.

This really is a wonderful property and must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Location

Lanner is a popular village setting surrounded by countryside, yet within easy reach of many of Cornwall's principal towns and coastal destinations. The village boasts its own primary school, community facilities, children's play areas and a useful selection of everyday amenities, including a local shop, bakery, fish and chip shop and a Public House. All of these are only a ten-minute walk away. For those who enjoy the outdoors, Lanner enjoys an excellent network of footpaths, bridleways and cycle trails. Nearby, Carn Marth is a favourite spot for walking and offers wonderful views across the Cornish countryside, while the Tresavean Trail and Great Flat Lode provide scenic routes through open countryside and Cornwall's fascinating mining landscape. Redruth, Camborne and Truro are all readily accessible, providing a wider range of shopping, leisure and transport facilities. Lanner is also well placed for travelling to Falmouth, renowned for its harbour, beaches, independent shops and restaurants. The north coast at Portreath is within a comfortable driving distance along with Porthtowan and St Agnes offering beautiful beaches, coastal walks and opportunities for surfing as well. This convenient location makes Lanner an excellent base from which to enjoy village life, countryside and both sides of the Cornish coastline.
