Location:

The site is situated at Ryders Mere in the West Midlands, positioned within an established area of woodland and open water approximately 3 miles northeast of Walsall town centre and around 8 miles northwest of Birmingham city centre.

The location benefits from access to the southwest via Ryders Hayes Lane, with the A452 Chester Road and A461 providing connections to the wider Midlands motorway network, including the M6 motorway approximately 4 miles to the east.

Ryders Mere occupies a secluded natural setting characterised by mature woodland, lakeside frontage and areas of open green space. The site adjoins established residential neighbourhood's and recreational land uses, while also benefiting from proximity to local amenities and transport links within the surrounding urban area.

The surrounding area comprises a mix of residential development, green infrastructure and commercial occupiers, with nearby open spaces and nature areas contributing to the sites attractive environmental setting.
