Gracefully positioned on the edge of well maintained communal grounds and bordered by sweeping parkland, this exceptional end terrace townhouse in Mannamead offers elegant, flexible family living arranged over four impressive floors. Immaculately presented and thoughtfully designed, the property combines refined style with a remarkable sense of space, light and tranquility.

The ground floor features a flexible family room or fifth bedroom, a sitting room/home gym/office with utility cupboard providing access to the private low maintenance garden and a cloakroom/WC. The first floor reveals an inviting lounge elegantly appointed and opening onto a charming balcony, providing a sophisticated space for relaxation and showcasing statement furnishings. Double doors lead through to the well appointed kitchen/breakfast room with quality cabinetry and a Juliette balcony framing picturesque views stretching across to Mount Edgcumbe in Cornwall. The generous primary bedroom benefits from built in wardrobes and a beautifully finished en suite shower room. A further double bedroom enjoys its own Juliette balcony, while the additional single bedroom makes an ideal home office or nursery, both rooms boasting far reaching elevated views and serviced by a luxurious family bathroom with high quality fittings. The top floor is dedicated to a superb loft room spanning the full footprint of the property. Recently fitted dormer windows, this remarkable space offers incredible panoramic views and endless possibilities, studio, hobby room or luxury home workspace.

The rear garden is attractively paved for ease of maintenance and designed to offer a peaceful, private outdoor sanctuary with side access leading directly to the front of the property,

Within close proximity to Hyde Park shops, excellent schooling and the expansive green surroundings, this property stands as a rare opportunity to acquire a home of such exceptional presentation, superb flexibility and breathtaking outlooks.
