INTRODUCTION

Occupying a prestigious position toward the cul-de-sac end of this highly desirable, tree-lined avenue, this substantial semi-detached residence is an exceptional example of 1930s architecture. Built by the renowned local builder Alma Jordan, the property retains many fine Art Deco features, seamlessly blended with a comprehensive scheme of modernising and remodelling by the current owners.

The elegantly proportioned accommodation is designed for contemporary family life, highlighted by a stunning open-plan living kitchen. This space features a cleverly integrated utility room accessed via doors that blend into the kitchen units for a sleek, minimalist finish. The ground floor further comprises an attractive lounge with a log-burning stove, a spacious entrance hallway, and a practical shower room.

The first floor offers five bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with a private en-suite shower room and a stylish family bathroom. A fixed staircase from the landing leads to a versatile converted loft area.

Set back from the road behind wrought iron gates, the property benefits from an extensive driveway and a manicured front lawn. The secluded rear garden is a particular delight, featuring a slate patio directly adjacent to the house, perfect for entertaining, with a long lawn beyond and mature borders providing a high degree of privacy.

LOCATION

West Ella Way runs between South Ella Way and Beverley Road, Kirk Ella. Kirk Ella is a highly prestigious and established village in the West Hull area of the East Riding of Yorkshire. It offers an exceptional quality of life, celebrated for its peaceful, leafy residential atmosphere and reputation as one of the most desirable addresses in the region. Together with the nearby villages of Anlaby, Willerby, and Hessle, the area provides superb access to top-tier amenities and extensive recreational facilities.

Residents enjoy the proximity to comprehensive amenities including the Anlaby Retail Park (with Marks and Spencer Food Hall and other major retailers), and a variety of supermarkets while benefitting from the tranquillity of Kirk Ella's surroundings. The village boasts a charming and picturesque centre with its popular pub, providing excellent options for dining and socialising. Residents are also close to Haltemprice Leisure Centre for fitness and recreation, and Kirk Ella is home to the challenging Hull Golf Club.

Families are particularly well-served by a range of highly-regarded schooling options catering to all age groups with established local primary and secondary schools, notably Kirk Ella St. Andrew's Community Primary School, Wolfreton School & Sixth Form College, alongside the nearby highly-regarded independent Tranby School or Hymers College, making it an ideal choice for families.

Kirk Ella provides convenient regional connectivity with easy access to the A63 and the wider M62 corridor. Furthermore, local accessibility is excellent with regular local bus services and train stations at Hull, Hessle, and Brough.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 5.5 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 9 miles
- York: Approx. 38 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 59 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
