Title Register Restrictions

The property must only be used as a bungalow, a standard house, or a boarding house unless written permission is obtained. The owner must not do anything on the property that causes a nuisance or annoyance to the neighbours or the local estate. The owner is responsible for keeping the fences, hedges, or walls on specific sides of the property (marked with a 'T' on the title plan) in good repair and cannot change the type of fencing without permission. No new buildings can be put up without the previous estate owner's approval of the plans. There are specific rules about room heights and floor levels, and roofs with gable ends (the triangular part of a wall between the slopes of a roof) are not allowed.

Alcohol cannot be sold on the premises without written permission. Caravans, mobile homes, or temporary structures like booths or roundabouts cannot be kept or used on the land. Bricks cannot be made or burnt on the property.

The owner cannot put up billboards or advertising signs on the property.

Because the property was transferred to the current owner as a gift or for less than its full value in 1998, there is a legal note regarding the Insolvency Act. This is a technical rule that protects creditors if the person who gave the property away becomes bankrupt shortly after.

Local Authority

This property falls within the geographical area of East Lindsey District Council - 01507 601111.
