Inside Story

Beautifully refurbished and thoughtfully extended by the current owners, this exceptional detached Victorian residence seamlessly combines timeless period character with stylish contemporary living. The welcoming entrance hall features beautiful original Victorian tiled flooring. The front-facing lounge boasts a striking bay window, original wooden flooring and a feature log burner, while a second generous reception room offers a further bay window and decorative Victorian fireplace. The stunning open-plan kitchen and breakfast room forms the heart of the home, providing an exceptional space for family life and entertaining. Bespoke wooden cabinetry is complemented by quartz worktops, integrated appliances and a central island with Belfast sink and hot water tap. Solid oak engineered parquet flooring with underfloor heating adds warmth, while full-width bifold doors and two glazed roof lanterns flood the room with natural light and create a seamless connection to the garden. A fitted utility room and separate cloakroom complete the ground floor. The first floor offers three generously sized double bedrooms, each retaining beautifully reinstated original fireplaces, alongside a luxurious family bathroom with walk-in shower, freestanding bath, heated towel rail and low-level sensor lighting. The entire second floor is dedicated to an impressive principal suite, complete with bespoke fitted dressing area, useful eaves storage, and a stylish en-suite shower room. Externally, the professionally landscaped rear garden has been designed for both family enjoyment and entertaining, featuring established lawn, patio seating areas, built-in seating and a dedicated play area. A versatile brick-built workshop/studio provides additional useful space, while a detached garage and private driveway offer valuable off-road parking. An exceptional home combining Victorian elegance, generous accommodation and contemporary family living.
