

Connells

13 Trobridge Parade Grahame Park Way
LONDON

Property Description

Connells are delighted to present this stylish and well-appointed one-bedroom second-floor apartment, superbly positioned within the highly sought-after and modern Trinity Square development, Grahame Park Way, NW9.

Beautifully designed for contemporary living, this bright and spacious home is perfectly suited to young couples, first-time buyers, professionals seeking a well-connected London base, or investors looking for a strong rental opportunity in an area of continued growth. Residents benefit from a variety of nearby shops, cafés, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities

The property features a thoughtfully arranged and well-balanced layout. The open-plan kitchen, living and dining area creates a stylish and sociable heart of the home, ideal for relaxing, entertaining or working from home. Finished with modern fittings and flooded with natural light, the space opens through double doors onto a private balcony - perfect for morning coffee, evening drinks or outdoor dining in the warmer months.

The bedroom is a generous double room, offering excellent proportions with ample space for wardrobes and additional furniture. Further benefits include a secure entry system, lift access, and the rare advantage of an indoor allocated parking space, complete with EV charging facilities. Another advantage of this home is its affordable service charge, which offers excellent value compared with many neighbouring developments.
