Mill House

Greatbridge Road, Romsey, Hampshire, SO51 0HP

The Mill House is an impressive six bedroom detached Victorian property set in 2 acres of mature gardens on the bank of the River Test with period features throughout.

THE PROPERTY

The Mill House is an impressive detached Victorian property set in 2 acres of mature gardens on the bank of the River Test. The property benefits from three reception rooms, six double bedrooms and period features throughout.

The downstairs of the property has been newly carpeted throughout and comprises a large sitting room, drawing room and a separate dining room all with open fires. The spacious kitchen/breakfast room, including an Aga, has lovely views over the orchard and garden. Beyond the kitchen are a boot room, larder and utility room offering plenty of storage. Additionally, the property includes a further utility room, a room fitted with secure storage, a boiler room as well as access to the wine cellar.

Upstairs, the property can be divided into two separate living areas. The master suite consists of a large double bedroom, dressing room and en suite. There are three further double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate shower room. The further end of the house can be used as a self-contained flat including a bedroom, sitting room, bathroom and kitchen. There are stairs leading up to three attic rooms on the second floor which provide extensive storage.

Outside, there is a patio area with electric awning, an orchard as well as a tributary of the River Test. The river runs to the Trout Farm which is adjacent to the property. The property additionally benefits from plenty of outside storage and garages.
