2 1 1

Dating back to 1880, this charming two-bedroom semi-detached cottage has been tastefully refreshed throughout, blending period character with modern convenience. Situated in the sought-after village of Llanddulas, the property enjoys stunning coastal views and benefits from off-road parking and a beautifully tiered rear garden with timber decking, perfect for relaxing outdoors. A versatile garden room with power and a log burner provides an ideal home office, studio or entertaining space. Internally, the accommodation comprises a welcoming lounge with an inglenook fireplace and multi-fuel burner, a well-appointed kitchen with breakfast bar, and a practical utility room. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom opening onto a private balcony with access to the garden, together with a modern family bathroom.
