SITUATION

This appealing cottage is located on the fringe of the desirable Dartmoor village of Lydford, just 150 yards from vast open moorland, making it perfectly positioned for those with an outdoor-oriented lifestyle, and in direct proximity to the village's popular farm shop and one of its two extremely highly regarded pubs. Lydford is an unspoilt, historic village on the western fringe of Dartmoor National Park, centred around a medieval castle which was passed to the care of English Heritage in 1932. The village offers two pubs, an Ofsted "Good"-rated primary school, a village hall, a popular farm shop and the Granite Trail cycleway, and also boasts the delightful Lydford Gorge, a National Trust property with its famous waterfall. Nearby Tavistock (8 miles) and Okehampton (8.5 miles) provide an excellent range of shopping, recreational, and educational facilities. The A30 is within 4 miles, at Sourton, and Exeter, around 25 miles further on, offers air, rail, and motorway links to London and beyond.

DESCRIPTION

This handsome and appealing, detached stone cottage has origins, we understand, as far back as the 18th century and has been a loved home to our client for 37 years. The characterful four-bedroomed accommodation provides comfort, warmth and traditional character in equal measure, and benefits from modern conveniences including oil-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing.

Complementing the cottage externally is a very pretty and well-established, south-west facing garden and two parking spaces, making this a very well-rounded home with good breadth of appeal, in a superb edge-of-moorland location.

ACCOMMODATION

Throughout the accommodation are numerous character features including exposed beams and timbers, panelled walls and doors, deep window sills, high skirting boards and two impressive stone fireplaces. The cottage is accessed at the front via an enclosed, apexed porch, leading to the following accommodation: a cosy, characterful front-facing sitting room centred around an inglenook fireplace with a Woodwarm log-burning stove; a well-fitted kitchen with farmhouse-style cabinetry beneath timber worktops, incorporating a 1½-bowl Franke ceramic sink with drainer grooves, breakfast bar, oil-fired Heritage range cooker with double ovens and dual hot plates, space for a freestanding electric oven and hob, built-in fridge, microwave space and space for a dishwasher; a utility/boot room with space for an American-style fridge-freezer and washing machine and a door to the courtyard; a cloakroom; and a dedicated dining room with two front-facing windows and a substantial stone inglenook fireplace; a rear hallway with built-in storage, suitable for use as a home office or study; four first-floor bedrooms, three of which are doubles, one is served by a tasteful en-suite shower room, the two largest enjoy views over the front garden, and the others look towards open moorland, and; a fully tiled and well-appointed family bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The property benefits from two parking spaces in the car park of the adjacent Dartmoor Inn, at the entrance to its southwest-facing garden. The garden comprises beautifully kept lawns with an array of colourful shrubbery, including Japanese acers, a copper beech, two vibrant pieris, a camellia, azaleas and two photinias, plus a privately positioned summerhouse enjoying a lovely moorland outlook, a tool shed and a log store. At the rear of the cottage is an enclosed courtyard with a second timber tool shed.
