The Property

This beautifully presented first floor apartment is situated within a historic part of the City in East Street. East Street is conveniently positioned with a range of amenities nearby to include the pretty shopping area of Church Street occupied by a selection of independent traders and in turn leads through to the grounds occupying Hereford Cathedral and school. The City's High Street can also be found nearby for a full compliment of services and retail opportunities along with various eateries.

The communal entrance door opens into a large reception hallway with access out to the rear shared gardens and staircase rising to the first-floor landing where number 5 can be located.

The apartment's entrance door opens into a hallway with ceiling coving, wall mounted central heating controls, wall mounted thermostat, storage cupboard and wooden flooring.

The apartment offers two bedrooms with the main bedroom being very generous in size having sash window to front along with substantial built-in storage, downlighters and wooden flooring. There is also an ensuite with wall mounted wash hand basin with monobloc tap, close coupled WC, generous glass panelled shower cubicle, extractor fan, wall mounted heated towel rail and tiled flooring.

The second bedroom is a double room with sash window to front, ceiling coving, built in storage and wooden flooring.

The main bathroom can be found opposite the second bedroom which has a suite to include close couple WC, wall mounted wash hand basin with storage below, panel enclosed bath with shower over and separate shower attachment, wall mounted heated towel rail, extractor fan, ceiling coving, window to rear and tiled flooring.

One of the main features of the apartment is the open plan kitchen / sitting room. The kitchen offers a selection of modern base and wall mounted cabinets, display shelves, granite worksurfaces, integrated dishwasher, fridge and freezer and washing machine for convenience. There is also a 4-ring gas hob with extractor fan over, electric oven, downlighters, wall mounted shelving, ceiling coving and wooden flooring.

The sitting room area offers a lovely open plan arrangement with space for furnishings, decorative fireplace with surround, downlighters and wooden flooring. To the rear of the sitting room is a sash window which lifts to allow access out onto the balcony/terrace. This area is a unique feature to the apartment with lovely elevated views towards the Cathedral along with providing a most pleasant area for sitting out of an evening.

While the building does not have private parking facilities there are parking opportunities nearby via the local authority or private car park management.
