OUTSIDE

The property occupies a generously proportioned plot being approached from the main road through the village via a private driveway which serves Aingarth and the adjoining bungalow. Aingarth has a full vehicular right of way over the driveway (subject to a proportionate contribution to costs of repair and maintenance) and this in turn leads to the gravelled side driveway providing car standing space for at least two vehicles.

To the other side of the bungalow there is a pathway and gravelled side garden which leads to the front of the property.

The bungalow has the benefit of a very spacious primarily lawned garden arranged on two levels with natural stone retaining wall, timber garden shed, mature holly bush.

In addition an access from the side pathway is an integral shelved garden or general store which houses the gas meter.
