IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and a central hallway leads you through the home, with attractive wood flooring creating a cohesive feel. At the front, the bay fronted reception is wonderfully bright, with generous proportions, a characterful fireplace and bespoke shelving adding warmth and personality. It is an inviting room with plenty of space to relax or entertain. The principal bedroom sits just beyond, with soft green walls and a peaceful outlook. The contemporary bathroom has been smartly finished with a shower over the bath, striking patterned floor tiles and clean, modern fittings.

Towards the rear of the home, you'll find the modern kitchen, neatly arranged with sleek cabinetry, timber worktops and a door leading directly out to the garden. The second bedroom sits at the rear of the property, enjoying a peaceful outlook over the garden through wide glazed doors, making it equally well suited as a guest room, workspace or second double bedroom. The south east facing garden is a real highlight, beginning with a generous patio for morning coffee or outdoor dining before extending to a lawn framed by established planting, offering a lovely balance of sunshine and greenery. Beautifully maintained throughout, the flat is ready to move straight into while remaining close to everything this well-connected neighbourhood has to offer.

WHAT ELSE?

- Maryland Station is a short walk away, putting the Elizabeth line within easy reach for fast connections across London, while Stratford is also nearby for Underground, Overground, DLR and National Rail services.
- Wanstead Flats is just around the corner, offering acres of open green space for walking, running and weekend picnics.
- Stratford's thriving shopping and dining scene is within easy reach, with Westfield Stratford City, the East Bank cultural quarter and an ever-growing collection of independent cafés, restaurants and bars to enjoy.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"Living here has been a genuine pleasure. Wanstead Flats is practically on our doorstep, and weekend walks through the nature there have become a real ritual for us. In the summer, we love heading over to Hackney Wick to sit by the canal with a cold beer and it never gets old. The road itself is wonderfully quiet, and the garden has been one of our favourite things about the property. It really is stunning. The local pubs give the whole area a brilliant, sociable buzz without feeling overwhelming. For getting around, the Elizabeth line has been a game-changer. Central London in minutes, and the rest of the country beyond that. It's made the commute genuinely stress-free."
