Fisher Street, Lewes, BN7 2DG

This exceptional third-floor penthouse apartment in the heart of Lewes offers a lifestyle that feels both luxurious and unique. Offered with a Share of Freehold, the property combines striking architectural design with elegant contemporary finishes, all set against panoramic views stretching across the historic town and towards the rolling South Downs.

Flooded with natural light, the stunning open-plan living and dining space has been designed for modern living, creating the perfect setting for entertaining, unwinding, or simply soaking in the ever-changing views across Lewes. Elevated high above the bustle of the town below, the apartment enjoys a rare sense of peace, privacy, and exclusivity.

A true standout feature is the remarkable main bathroom which has at its centre a spectacular circular bath positioned beneath a dramatic porthole-style window, creating an indulgent and unforgettable space to relax and unwind. Both the principal bathroom and separate contemporary shower room benefit from underfloor heating, adding an extra touch of comfort and luxury.

The bedrooms are beautifully proportioned and thoughtfully arranged, while the overall finish throughout the apartment strikes a perfect balance between style, warmth, and sophistication.

Positioned just moments from Lewes High Street and the mainline railway station, the property places the town's celebrated independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and cultural attractions right on your doorstep, whilst also offering immediate access to scenic countryside walks across the South Downs.

Combining breathtaking views, luxurious details, and an enviable central location, this is a home that delivers an exceptional take on town-centre living.
