SITUATION

The historical village of Horton lies at the foot of the Cotswold escarpment on the Little Avon River between the villages of Hawkesbury and Little Sodbury. The village is surrounded by rolling countryside and is perfect for country walks being just a quarter of a mile from the Cotswold Way and close to the Badminton Estate. Horton is well-served by its own well-regarded primary school and there is an active village hall which provides a hub for the community. The nearby market town of Chipping Sodbury offers a broad range of shops and amenities for everyday needs including quality shops, restaurants, cafes and pubs, as well as a Waitrose supermarket. There are also a number of popular schools catering for all ages.

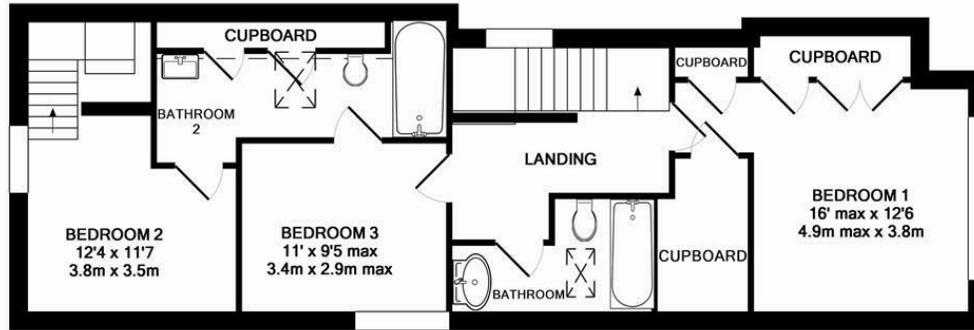

Located just off the A46, Horton is only 4.5 miles to Junction 18 of the M4, providing quick and easy access to Bath and Bristol. The nearby Yate train station (approx. 3 miles away) also provides good transport links to Bristol, Cheltenham and mainline services.
