"It's the sense of community that makes this street such a wonderful place to live. It's the kind of place where neighbours know each other, you can pop next door to borrow a clove of garlic, children play together out on the street and coffee mornings bring everyone together. There's a real sense of looking out for one another. The annual street party is something really special, with homemade cakes and snacks, live music, face painting, shadow puppets and plenty of fun for all. We have absolutely adored living at no18 and bringing our son into the world in this gorgeous environment."
