Set within a peaceful cul-de-sac in the sought-after village of Bagworth, Murphy Drive is a beautifully presented double-fronted detached home offering a blend of modern comfort and semi-rural charm. The property enjoys an attractive frontage with a sweeping driveway and sits within a pleasant residential setting that provides both privacy and convenience.

Inside, the accommodation is thoughtfully arranged with a spacious and versatile layout designed for contemporary living. Bright and welcoming interiors are enhanced by natural light, while stylish finishes create a warm and inviting atmosphere. The open-plan living arrangement flows effortlessly, providing a practical yet elegant space suited to everyday life and entertaining.

The property features a stylish Faber Jelling gas log-burner style stove, combining the character and warmth of a traditional wood-burning stove with the convenience of modern gas heating. The unit is energy rated A and provides an attractive focal point to the room while offering efficient supplementary heat.

Outside, the south-westerly facing rear garden forms a standout feature, enjoying sunlight throughout much of the day. The generous plot combines lawned areas, paved seating spaces and established planting that adds colour and privacy, while a detached garage and side access provide additional practicality and storage.

General Description:

Welcome to Murphy Drive, a beautifully presented double-fronted detached family home, perfectly positioned within a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of the desirable village of Bagworth.

Nestled within this charming semi-rural setting, the property offers a wonderful balance of modern family living and village tranquillity, creating an ideal environment for those seeking both comfort and convenience. Thoughtfully arranged throughout, the home boasts a spacious and versatile layout with four bedrooms, three reception rooms and a delightful south-westerly facing rear garden.

Approaching the property, you are immediately greeted by an attractive frontage with a sweeping driveway providing ample off-road parking alongside the home.

Accommodation:

Stepping inside, a warm and inviting reception hall sets the tone for the rest of the property and leads through to the well-proportioned ground floor accommodation. The superb family living room is positioned to the rear of the home and is centred around a stylish Faber gas log-burner style stove, with French doors opening directly onto the garden, allowing natural light to flood the room.

The dual-aspect open-plan kitchen/dining room offers a timeless selection of matching base units and work surfaces, complemented by a range of modern integrated appliances and ample space for family dining and entertaining. In addition, the ground floor benefits from a versatile home office or study and a convenient guest cloakroom.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four generously sized bedrooms, each offering comfortable proportions and flexibility to suit a variety of family needs. The main bedroom enjoys the added benefit of a sleek en suite bathroom, while the remaining three bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom featuring a three-piece suite with attractive mosaic tiled surrounds.

Gardens and land:

The rear garden is a true highlight of the home, enjoying a sunny south-westerly orientation that bathes the space in natural light throughout the day. The generous plot features a combination of slab-paved seating areas ideal for outdoor dining, shaped lawns extending to the borders and mature shrubbery providing privacy and floral colour. A side gate leads to the side aspect, where a detached garage offers excellent additional storage and practical convenience.

Location:

Bagworth is a small village in north-west Leicestershire, around 3 miles south of Coalville and about 10 miles west of Leicester. Historically a former coal-mining community, it has developed into a quiet residential village on the edge of the National Forest, surrounded by countryside and woodland. Nearby green spaces such as Bagworth Heath Woods and Thornton Reservoir provide popular spots for walking, cycling and outdoor recreation.

Despite its size, the village offers a range of everyday amenities including a convenience shop, local pubs, sports facilities and a community centre. Larger shopping and leisure options are available in nearby Coalville and Leicester. Bagworth is also well placed for commuters, with road links to the A447, A50 and the M1 (J22), giving access to Leicester, Loughborough and the wider Midlands, while regular bus services connect the village with surrounding towns.
