Starkey&Brown is delighted to present this distinguished Grade II listed Georgian townhouse, perfectly positioned on Lindum Road with breathtaking skyline views across Lincoln and just a short stroll from the historic Lincoln Cathedral.

Standing proudly in an elevated position, this historic home is arranged over three floors and even includes a cellar featuring the remains of a Roman wall. The current owner has sympathetically begun a programme of renovations, blending period elegance with modern comforts and introducing two striking multi-fuel fireplaces that complement the home's original character. With approximately 2,000 sq. ft. of accommodation, the property offers an abundance of living space.

There are four generously proportioned bedrooms across the upper floors, three versatile reception rooms, a dining room, a piano/sitting room, and a first-floor lounge with elevated views from the bay window. The kitchen is positioned to the rear aspect of the ground floor, while the first floor also benefits from a shower room and the potential to create an additional separate WC. Externally, the home is enhanced by a private paved front courtyard and a rear private tiered garden, enclosed by traditional walls and fencing to create a peaceful retreat within the city.

Lindum Road is an enviable location, within easy reach of Lincoln's most celebrated landmarks including the Cathedral, Castle, Bailgate and Steep Hill, together with the vibrant Brayford Marina and the bustling High Street. Local amenities such as Lincoln County Hospital, Bishop Grosseteste University, the University of Lincoln and Lincoln Minster School are all close by, making this a truly exceptional opportunity to acquire a charming traditional Georgian townhouse.
