DESCRIPTION

Situated within a delightful rural hamlet, this beautifully presented barn conversion, believed to date back to approximately 1791, must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Offering around 3 acres of land, the property successfully combines charming original character with modern comforts, including UPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating.

The accommodation is both spacious and versatile, featuring an impressive entrance hall/dining room with a staircase rising to a gallery landing and a cast-iron log burner set within an inglenook-style brick fireplace. The L-shaped kitchen/dining room is fitted with an attractive range of shaker-style units and features a traditional Rayburn stove set within an exposed brick fireplace, while French doors open onto the rear patio and gardens.

There are four bedrooms arranged across both floors, together with modern bathroom and shower room facilities, while the first-floor living room has been positioned to fully enjoy the surrounding countryside views.

Externally, the property is approached through farmhouse-style gates opening onto extensive gravel parking, with beautifully landscaped gardens, patio areas, water features, outbuildings, stables, and approximately 3 acres of land divided into three paddocks.

LOCATION

The Barn enjoys a peaceful position within a picturesque rural hamlet in the Wrexham area, close to the border of Shropshire and near the market town of Whitchurch, surrounded by open countryside and scenic farmland. Despite its tranquil setting, the property remains conveniently located for access to Whitchurch, which offers a range of independent shops, supermarkets, schools, restaurants, and leisure facilities. Excellent road links provide straightforward access to Wrexham, Chester, Shrewsbury, Nantwich, and the wider North West, making the property ideal for those seeking countryside living without sacrificing convenience.

ENTRANCE HALL/DINING ROOM
