DESCRIPTION

A delightful detached cob cottage occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.4 acres, enjoying far-reaching rural views on the edge of the sought-after village of St Kew. In need of some updating, the property offers three en-suite bedrooms, extensive gardens, useful outbuildings and excellent potential for ancillary accommodation, the property presents a rare opportunity in a highly desirable North Cornwall setting.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is approached via an entrance porch leading into a reception hall, from which the principal accommodation flows. The attractive triple-aspect sitting room is a particularly light-filled space, centred around a fireplace with a wood-burning stove and enjoying French doors opening directly onto the gardens. The separate dining room features a traditional stone fireplace with an inset wood-burning stove (currently not in use, with the chimney capped).

The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units incorporating an integrated oven and hob, together with a sink unit and space for under-counter fridge and freezer appliances.

On the first floor, a landing with built-in storage cupboards serves two generous double bedrooms, each benefiting from en-suite facilities, one with a bathroom and the other with a shower room. Both bedrooms, together with the landing, enjoy delightful far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside.

The third bedroom is arranged separately and benefits from a modern en-suite shower room together with an adjoining utility room. Subject to any necessary consents, this area offers excellent scope to create self-contained ancillary accommodation, ideally suited to multi-generational living, guest accommodation or potential income generation.

OUTSIDE

The property is set within generous south facing mature gardens, thoughtfully divided into a series of enclosed lawned areas with established shrubs, trees and a variety of seating areas from which to enjoy the peaceful surroundings.

A substantial workshop is complemented by an adjoining outbuilding with power and cloakroom facilities, offering flexibility for use as a home office, studio or hobby space.

Beyond the main gardens lies a productive orchard with two large chicken coops and the benefit of separate gated vehicular access and parking. This area may offer future development potential, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions.
