19 Pitcullen Terrace Perth, PH2 7EQ

- Superb traditional semi-detached home
- Two en-suites & family bathroom
- Dressing room/Bedroom 5
- Bright living/family area
- Office, utility and boot room
- Four well-proportioned bedrooms
- Gas central heating & double glazing
- Stunning dining kitchen with island
- Characterful sitting/games room
- Very private rear garden

Blending elegant period character with beautifully considered modern interiors, 19 Pitcullen Terrace is a striking 4/5 bedroom semi-detached home with a real sense of space, style and flexibility.

The standout feature is the superb dining kitchen and living/family area, creating a bright, sociable heart to the home. The kitchen is finished with contemporary units, generous worktops and a large central island, while the adjoining living space is flooded with natural light from rooflights and French doors opening towards the garden. It is a wonderfully versatile space for everyday family life, entertaining and relaxed dining. Elsewhere on the ground floor, the separate sitting room/games room brings a different character, with decorative cornicing, timber flooring and a fireplace adding charm and warmth. A dedicated office, useful boot room, utility room and WC provide excellent practical space. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, with two benefiting from en-suite facilities, alongside a further bathroom and separate dressing room - formerly a single bedroom. Outside, the mature rear garden offers a generous lawn, established planting and space for outdoor seating, while the gravelled frontage provides off-street parking. A characterful home with a confident modern edge, offering an excellent balance of period detail, contemporary living and everyday practicality.
