Thinking of Selling?

If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.

Hunters Estate Agents are delighted to present this charming two-bedroom cottage, ideally situated within one mile of Stroud town centre. Rich in character, the property retains a wealth of period features throughout, including exposed Cotswold stone, original beams, and wooden flooring. The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, a cosy sitting room complete with a wood-burning stove, a separate dining room, and a well-appointed kitchen providing access to the garden. Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the property further benefits from a garage, gated off-street parking, and two attractive gardens.

SITUATION

Cainscross/Ebley is located in a well respected and preserved residential area where nearby there are a range of cafés, salons and a well stocked local shop. There are a range of local educational options and the area is particularly popular with those who attend Marling Grammar school for boys and Stroud High school for girls, as students often walk to and from these schools. Further leisure and shopping facilities can be found in Stroud along with a mainline link to London Paddington as well as to Cheltenham and Gloucester in the other direction. A canal side cycle route into town is also a highly appreciated facility while there is also relative easy access to a range of supermarkets as well as Junction 13 - M5. The meeting point of five valleys, the historic town of Stroud is a well-known centre for arts and crafts as well as its weekly Farmers Market; recently voted the best in the country. An annual textile festival is held in the town as well as various exhibitions at the Subscription Rooms and at The Museum in the Park. Ebley Warf enjoys cafes, a wine bar and hairdressers etc. You can enjoy the peaceful canal walk with many green spaces and local countryside walks on the doorstep too. The town is within walking distance.
