

33 Monkwood is a beautifully presented and spacious five-bedroom detached family home situated in the popular village of Gattonside, which lies just across the River Tweed from the popular Borders town of Melrose. This exceptional property, measuring 268 square metres/2884 square feet, occupies an elevated position with charming views, whilst making the most of the flexible accommodation in a most desirable residential area, which also benefits from private parking to the front of the large, detached garage.

Gattonside is based in a highly accessible position with the A68 only a short distance away and is approximately one and a half miles from the Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh. As well as sitting in a strong primary and secondary school catchment, the Borders General Hospital also lies on the outskirts of Melrose.

Internally, this stunning home, which sits over three levels, comprises five bedrooms, an ensuite bathroom, an ensuite shower room, a family bathroom, a large sitting room, a dining room, a fully fitted dining kitchen, a family room/study, a downstairs wc, plus a gym/studio, utility room and boot room at basement level. With high quality fixtures and fittings in the kitchen, and stylish flooring throughout, there is also excellent storage, with wardrobes to four bedrooms, whilst also benefitting from gas central heating, an open fire in the sitting room and double glazing.

Externally, the property has private parking to the front of the detached garage and a pedestrian gate which leads up through feature dry-stone walls to the pillared entrance at the front door. The garden wraps around the property with lawn, hedging and paved pathways to the front, from where to sit and enjoy the views, with an extensive patio to the side and rear alongside a generous lawn to the back with well stocked and mature borders plus fruit trees. With external steps down to the basement and into the boot room, there is access to the garden from the dining room and family room providing excellent space for informal entertaining.

Only a relatively short walk into Melrose via The Chain Bridge over the River Tweed, Edinburgh and Newcastle are easily accessible via the A68, and most Border towns are readily available from this central location, with the aforementioned Borders Railway nearby.

Location:

33 Monkwood sits in the desirable village of Gattonside which lies a short distance across the River Tweed from the attractive Borders town of Melrose, regarded by many as the most picturesque of the Borders towns Melrose is situated between the Eildon Hills and River Tweed. There are two highly acclaimed restaurants and a lively village hall within Gattonside itself. With an approximate population of around 2100 in Melrose, and 1200 in the immediate villages of Gattonside, Darnick and Newstead, the town provides an extensive choice of amenities ranging from a variety of specialist independent shops including a greengrocer, a fishmonger, two butchers, antique and interiors shops, small supermarkets, a large selection of coffee shops, restaurants and numerous hotels, all situated around the High Street area of this vibrant town. The thriving old mill town of Galashiels five miles to the West offers a fuller range of shopping facilities, which include Tesco, ASDA, Boots, Next and Marks & Spencer.

Local tourist attractions include Melrose Abbey, Harmony House (home to the Borders Book Festival), Priorwood Gardens, the Greenyards, (home of Melrose RFC and Rugby Sevens), and Abbotsford House with award winning visitor centre, the former home of Sir Walter Scott. There are also a variety of outdoor pursuits in the area that include fishing on the River Tweed, fieldsports, horse riding, golf, lawn bowling, mountain biking, and a selection of walks including the Southern Upland Way, St. Cuthbert's Way and The Borders Abbeys Way. Several festivals which include the Melrose 7's Rugby Tournament, the Borders Book Festival and the Melrose Festival complete with ride-out attract visitors from far and wide. Local schools include the excellent Melrose primary school, the highly regarded St Mary's preparatory school, and Earlston High School. The Borders General Hospital also lies just outside the town, and there are a number of churches in the area with Catholic, Episcopal and Church of Scotland represented in the town. Melrose sits in an easily accessible area and can be reached by the A68 or A7 via Galashiels that provide the links to Edinburgh or the north of England. The area is also served by the Borders Railway that runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, with the station approximately one and a half miles away. There is also a busy bus service with links to Newcastle and Carlisle in the South, as well as Edinburgh and the other Border towns. Edinburgh and Newcastle airports - both international, offer an excellent choice of destinations and are 45 miles and 66 miles away respectively.
