PROPERTY SUMMARY

Full of Victorian charm and offering generous space both inside and out, this three bedroom end of terrace home is ideal for buyers looking for character, practicality, and a garden you can really enjoy. The bay fronted reception room creates a bright and welcoming first impression, with ample space for comfortable seating and a natural focal point where a log burner could be installed. To the rear, the kitchen provides a great hub of the home with room for dining, while the ground floor is completed by a family bathroom. Upstairs, the first floor offers three bedrooms, giving flexible options for family life, guests, or working from home. A further shower room on the upper level adds real convenience, making day to day living that much easier. Outside, the property really comes into its own with a large rear garden, perfect for entertaining, children, or keen gardeners. Positioned at the back of the garden are brick built sheds, ideal for secure storage, a workshop setup, or hobby space.
