"Our favourite way to spend a Saturday morning is pottering down Gloucester Road for the best coffee in the city (MØD!), poking around in the incredible array of local shops before getting some brunch at Fed or Lonely Mouth. It's lovely and quiet, but we're also a stone's throw from some amazing pubs, like Inn on the Green and Draper's Arms, and eateries, such as Jean's Bistro, Nepali Chulo and Jinzu. On Sundays we take a walk up to the Ardagh Community Centre for a coffee and a sausage roll."
