INTRODUCTION

CHAIN FREE - A substantial, well extended four bedroom detached family home located to the popular Eastern fringe of Ipswich in Rushmere St Andrew's desirable Broke Hall development. The generously proportioned accommodation approaches 2000sqft and briefly comprises; entrance lobby, entrance hall, sitting and dining room, Wren fitted kitchen and separate utility room, striking family room with vaulted ceiling, and shower room on the ground floor, with landing, four bedrooms, and family bathroom on the first floor. To the outside there is a brick paved frontage providing ample parking and access to an attached garage, whilst to the rear there is a sizeable easterly facing established garden. Originally built with a double garage, one of which has been converted providing a versatile integral space, there is the additional benefit of East and West facing solar panels, predominant double glazing, gas fired central heating via a new boiler installed in December 2025, and water softener. Early viewing is highly recommended.
