

Edith Street | North Shields | NE30 2PN

£320,000

This stunning, Victorian end-of-terrace family home is steeped in history and circa approximately 1890. We understand that the street was built to house and serve the workers who built Tynemouth pier, how amazing is that? Within walking distance to the beach, Metro, Tynemouth Golf Course, Village, local schools and bus routes, this property affords a fabulous lifestyle to whomever is fortunate enough to secure it. Showcasing a

Westerly rear town garden, impressive vestibule and hallway, with original turned staircase to the first floor, lounge with feature fireplace and cast iron arch fire, separate dining room with cast iron fireplace, the heart of the home is the fabulous sized dining kitchen with access out to the town garden. First floor landing area, two spacious bedrooms, indulge in the luxurious Victorian style bathroom with separate shower cubicle, forest waterfall spray, freestanding bath and ample space. To the second floor is a large loft room with Velux windows and views over the Golf course to the rear. Edith Street also benefits from no onward chain!
