DESCRIPTION

2 Blagdon Terrace is a most attractive and characterful period townhouse, occupying an elevated position. The property combines elegant traditional features with well-proportioned accommodation arranged over multiple floors, creating a comfortable and versatile family home.

The house is understood to date from the late nineteenth century and retains many original features including high ceilings, sash windows and decorative detailing, all of which enhance the sense of light, space and character throughout.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and offers a flexible layout suited to modern family living.

A welcoming entrance hall leads to the principal reception rooms, which include a well-proportioned sitting room with a large window overlooking the garden, and a second reception room/study, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen/diner is fitted with a range of units and work surfaces and provides ample space for informal dining.

On the upper floor are several generously sized bedrooms, all enjoying excellent natural light, together with a well-appointed, spacious family bath and shower room. The principal bedroom benefits from an elevated outlook across the valley, creating a particularly peaceful and attractive retreat.
