

Keirin Road, London E20

Guide Price £1,250,000 Freehold

Description

Situated in the heart of Stratford's most coveted residential enclave, this exceptional four-bedroom townhouse represents a rare opportunity to acquire freehold family living within the award-winning Chobham Manor development. Nestled beside the verdant expanses of Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, the property combines contemporary architectural design with the lifestyle benefits of one of East London's most progressive neighbourhoods.

The home unfolds across four thoughtfully proportioned floors, beginning with an entrance hall that sets the tone with excellent storage provision and a guest cloakroom. The ground floor flows into a striking open-plan kitchen area, where sleek modern finishes and abundant natural light create an inviting space for daily living and entertaining. French doors open directly onto a private courtyard garden, offering a peaceful outdoor retreat and convenient access to the property's private carport, a genuine rarity in this location.

Ascend to the first floor to discover the principal living spaces, where a generously sized reception room becomes the heart of the home.
