Situated in the heart of the Cornish market town of Helston is this mid terraced two bedroom house with gardens. The residence, although in need of renovation and modernisation, offers great potential to prospective purchasers and benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an entrance area, kitchen, sitting room and a lounge. On the first floor is a bathroom and two bedrooms. To the outside are gardens to the front and rear which are mainly laid to lawn, whilst the rear garden has a good sized patio area and two outbuildings, one of which has been previously utilised as an aviary.

Helston is famed for its historic Flora Day celebrations on 8th May when the town is bedecked with greenery, bluebells and gorse. Throughout the day dancers weave in and out of shops, houses and gardens following the Helston Town Band playing the famous Flora Dance and ushering in the Summer. This property enjoys a wonderful garden and attractive outlook perfectly placed to enjoy all that the town has to offer whilst at the same time enjoying some peace and seclusion.

The modern part of the town and the surrounding nearby areas now boast many Primary Schools with the nearest Secondary Schools being in Helston and Mullion. Helston also enjoys a leisure centre with a swimming pool and large gym and many amenity areas including the Coronation Boating Lake and the beautiful National Trust Penrose Estate offering a host of woodland walks. Helston is widely regarded as the gateway to the stunning Lizard Peninsula and is within a ten minute drive of the thriving harbour and coastline at Porthleven offering an array of shops and good quality restaurants along with world class surf. The city of Truro and the towns of Falmouth, Penzance and Hayle are all within a twenty to thirty minute drive.
