

Connells

Norcott Mead
Shortstown Bedford

Property Description

Internally the ground floor accommodation comprises an entrance hall, large downstairs cloakroom, a stylish contemporary kitchen/diner fitted with an array of integrated appliances and a generous sized lounge with French doors opening out to the rear patio. On the first floor there is a stylish three piece family bathroom with three further bedrooms and on the second floor there is a wonderfully designed master bedroom with generous storage and the benefit of a large four piece en-suite shower room. Externally to the side there is single garage which has been converted by the current owners to a fully usable home office space and a paved driveway for 2/3 cars. The rear garden is Westerly facing and mainly laid to lawn with a paved patio area and gated side access. There is a water tap and external lighting. This is a rare example and don't come around very often so a viewing is highly advised.
