NEW! This forecourt fronted property is located on the outskirts of the popular coastal village of Askam in Furness. The property's recent renovation works have greatly improved the overall finish of this property, whilst still leaving plenty of scope for further improvements and personalising. The entrance hall leads you through to open plan lounge and dining room. There is a fitted kitchen with granite work surfaces to the rear and a separate laundry space and WC. The landing has a fitted boiler cupboard, loft access and doors to the two bedrooms and to the four piece bathroom. There is a recently installed gas-fired boiler and central heating radiators, UPVC framed double glazing and no upper chain. An ideal home for many buyers.
