This well-presented ground floor studio apartment offers stylish, contemporary living in a cleverly designed layout. The property features a modern fitted kitchen with sleek dark cabinetry, integrated oven and hob and ample worktop space, flowing through to a bright and comfortable studio room with space for both living and sleeping areas with integrated pull-down bed. A contemporary bathroom suite and smart storage solutions enhance the practicality of the home, while neutral décor and quality finishes throughout create a warm and inviting feel. Further benefits include its own private front door, two allocated parking spaces, a pleasant outlook over the communal gardens, and an exceptionally long lease of over 900 years. Ideal for first-time buyers or investors alike, this compact yet highly functional apartment makes excellent use of its 293 sq. ft. of accommodation.
