Mikaela says:

“What I love most about this lovely two-bedroom bungalow is how welcoming it feels from the moment you arrive. The front of the property is beautifully kept, with a generous driveway that easily fits around four cars and leads to the single garage at the rear.

Stepping inside, the bungalow feels instantly light and spacious. At the front, there are two comfortable double bedrooms, both with built-in wardrobes, which I think makes such good use of the space. Moving along the hallway, there’s a separate toilet and bathroom, which works really well as it is but could easily be combined into one larger space if you ever wished.

One of my favourite parts of the home is the living room. It’s so light and welcoming, and the gorgeous bow window gives a lovely view out onto the mature garden, which has clearly been well cared for over the years. There’s even a cosy gas fire for those winter months. Just beyond, the kitchen is bright and cheerful, with space for a small table, perfect for morning coffee or casual meals. There’s also space for under counter appliances. The kitchen then leads through to a handy porch with a great storage cupboard.

Being right next to fantastic local amenities, including a shop and pharmacy, makes everyday living that little bit easier too. Altogether, it’s a warm, friendly home in a beautiful part of Etwall that’s easy to fall in love with.”
