This impressive six-bedroom residence, originally constructed in 1908, effortlessly combines classic period charm with thoughtful modern enhancements. Arranged over four spacious floors, the property offers well-balanced and versatile accommodation, with all bedrooms being generous doubles.

At the heart of the home is a substantial kitchen, ideal for both everyday family living and entertaining, complemented by a selection of elegant reception spaces. Character features typical of its era are beautifully preserved, while contemporary touches provide comfort and practicality throughout.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a large, mature garden and a private driveway offering ample parking. A particularly unique feature is the two-storey coach house, presenting excellent potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

Overall, this is a distinguished and substantial home, perfectly suited to modern family life while retaining its original character and charm.
