About this property

Decorated and maintained to a high standard throughout, this characterful property combines period charm with stylish modern touches.

The welcoming entrance hall, with its decorative hardwood front door and patterned glazing, sets the tone for the rest of the home.

To the front, the elegant bay-fronted dining room features an attractive Art Deco fireplace and wooden flooring, while the separate living room offers stylish panelling, a feature fireplace, and French doors opening onto the patio area. The well-equipped galley kitchen boasts integrated appliances, tiled flooring, and the practicality of an under-stairs WC.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned and beautifully decorated bedrooms are served by a contemporary four-piece family bathroom, complete with shower enclosure and separate bath.

Externally, the property enjoys off-road parking to the front, a detached garage to the rear, and an enclosed lawned garden providing a private and peaceful outdoor space.
