The Property

This impressive detached period house is believed to date back the 17th century, offers a wealth of character yet also provides a recently re-fitted stylish kitchen and a selection of useful garden outbuildings. The accommodation starts to the side with the entrance porch with attractive arched windows to either side. Off the entrance hall is an office and a shower room providing a large shower, w.c. and hand basin. The dual aspect sitting room with an impressive exposed brick fireplace houses a wood-burning stove, also another red brick fireplace and exposed ceiling timbers can be found in the dining room. Double fully glazed doors lead down to the kitchen/breakfast room to the rear. A fabulous room, recently re-fitted with stylish cupboards and solid oak work-tops with hand made tiled splash-backs. The kitchen includes a built-in dishwasher, electric oven and induction hob. Ceramic tiled flooring under foot, leads to the second entrance door where a lobby provides an area for coats and shoes. A modern staircase from the dining room leads to a large landing which would make a good study. There are two double bedrooms, both enjoy wonderful views across the rear garden and the Blyth Valley beyond. The main bedroom is entered through a walk-in wardrobe a built-in cupboard houses the water cylinder for hot water heated from the solar panels. A spacious light room with a high ceiling and an excellent large en-suite bathroom with a bath, separate shower, w.c. and two hand basins set on a wooden dresser.

Garden and outbuildings

A driveway to the side of the house provides plenty of parking and leads to double detached garage which has been divided to provide a single garage and a hobby room but could easily be used again as a double garage. To the rear of the garage is a large store/utility room. There is an annex immediately behind which was previously used as an Airbnb to give the owners an income, with a kitchenette, a shower room and a large reception room which the current owners use as a studio. A recent addition is the fabulous 'cabin' a large fully insulated room ideal for guests or just sitting in and enjoying the wonderful views over the garden. There is a bike store and the recently installed oil-fired boiler to the side of the property. The rear garden of approximately 1/2 acre has been designed to provide different areas - a wildlife meadow with paths lead to a small orchard with a wide variety of fruit trees, cages contain fruit bushes and an enclosed vegetable garden, a 30ft poly tunnel and tool store. To the rear the garden has mature trees running down to the beautiful Blyth Valley water meadows.

Location

The property is a short drive to the unspoilt heritage coastline with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick a 10 minute drive away. The nearby town of Halesworth provides many independent shops, a primary school, public houses, restaurants, doctors, vets and a supermarket. It has a thriving centre of arts for the community called 'The Cut' which is used as a theatre, cinema, exhibitions and workshops. There is a train station at Halesworth with services to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich.
