Ryebeck Court

Ryebeck Court is a McCarthy & Stone development purpose-built for retirement living, offering 41 one and two-bedroom apartments exclusively for the over-60s.

A dedicated House Manager is on site during working hours, providing day-to-day support and peace of mind. The service charge takes care of all external maintenance, gardening, landscaping, window cleaning, buildings insurance, water rates, security systems, and the energy costs for all communal areas, including the homeowners' lounge and laundry room.

Safety and security are a priority, with camera door-entry and a 24-hour emergency call system in place.

Residents can enjoy the homeowners' lounge as a social hub, while a guest suite is available for visiting family and friends (additional charges apply).

A car parking permit scheme operates at the development — availability to be confirmed with the House Manager.

Local area

Ryebeck Court is set in the heart of Pickering, a traditional market town with a vibrant centre just half a mile from the development. The market place offers an excellent mix of local produce, quality high-street shops, a supermarket, and a popular monthly farmers' market.

Pickering is rich in history and character, home to the renowned North York Moors Steam Railway and surrounded by outstanding countryside. Nearby attractions include Castle Howard, Duncombe Park, and some of Yorkshire's prettiest villages such as Thornton-le-Dale, Hutton-le-Hole, and Goathland — famously known as Aidensfield in the TV series Heartbeat.

A bus stop is conveniently located approximately 75 yards from the development, making local travel simple and accessible.

Entrance Hall

The front door, fitted with a spy hole, opens into a spacious entrance hall. This welcoming area features illuminated light switches, a smoke detector, a secure door-entry intercom system, and a 24-hour emergency response pull-cord for added peace of mind.

A useful walk-in storage/airing cupboard is accessed from the hall, with further doors leading to the bedrooms, living room, and shower room.

Lounge

Open to the kitchen, the living room provides generous space for both relaxing and dining. An electric feature fireplace with a stone-effect surround creates an attractive focal point, while TV and telephone points add practicality. The room benefits from two ceiling lights, fitted carpets, raised electric power sockets, and two windows overlooking Eastgate, allowing plenty of natural light.
