About The Property

Looking for a well-presented bungalow within walking distance of amenities in one of West Wales' most popular coastal villages?

This attractive two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow enjoys a convenient position in Aberporth, with front and rear gardens, a surprisingly private enclosed rear garden, and easy access to the village, bus routes, beaches and the stunning Cardigan Bay coastline.

Situated within the sought-after seaside village of Aberporth, this well-maintained semi-detached bungalow offers comfortable single-storey living in a convenient location close to local amenities, public transport links and the beautiful beaches of Cardigan Bay.

Approached via a front garden with established planting, shrubs and pathways, the property enjoys an attractive kerb appeal. Steps lead up from the pavement to the front entrance, where a welcoming hallway provides access to all principal rooms.

The lounge is a bright and comfortable space positioned to the front of the property. A generous window allows plenty of natural light into the room and offers pleasant views across the surrounding neighbourhood. A feature fireplace creates a focal point, while the neutral décor provides a blank canvas ready for personal touches.

The kitchen sits to the rear of the bungalow and enjoys direct access to the garden. Fitted with a range of base units and worktops, there is space for an electric cooker and excellent wall space available for the addition of further wall-mounted cupboards if desired, allowing buyers the opportunity to increase storage capacity to suit their needs. The rear-facing window and glazed door provide a pleasant outlook over the garden.

There are two bedrooms, both of which are well-proportioned. The principal bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and benefits from a generous window creating a light and airy feel. The second bedroom overlooks the rear garden and would work equally well as a guest room, home office or hobby room.

Offers in the region of £220,000

Details Continued:

The shower room has been updated with modern fittings and comprises a corner shower enclosure, wash hand basin with storage below and WC, all finished in neutral tones.

Electric heating serves the property throughout, providing straightforward and efficient day-to-day living.

Externally:

Outside, the gardens are a real feature of the property. To the front, established borders and mature planting create an attractive approach. To the rear, the enclosed garden offers a good degree of privacy and has been arranged with gravelled areas, raised beds, pathways and a variety of shrubs and specimen planting. The stepped design creates different areas to enjoy throughout the seasons and offers plenty of potential for keen gardeners.

A charming small pond attracts local wildlife and is home to newts, adding an interesting natural feature to the garden. Gated side access connects the rear garden to the front of the property, making movement around the plot easy and practical.

On-street parking is available nearby.

Offering manageable accommodation, attractive gardens and a location within easy reach of the beach and village amenities, this is a property that could appeal to downsizers, first-time buyers, those seeking a coastal base in West Wales, or anyone looking for a low-maintenance home close to the Cardigan Bay coastline.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE AREA:

Aberporth is one of the most popular seaside villages in Ceredigion, known for its two sandy beaches, access to the Ceredigion Coast Path and regular sightings of dolphins in Cardigan Bay. The village provides a good range of everyday amenities including a convenience store, cafés, pubs, takeaway outlets, primary school and community facilities. The market town of Cardigan is approximately six miles away, offering a wider range of shops, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities, while the surrounding coastline of West Wales provides countless opportunities for walking, watersports and exploring the area's natural beauty.

OTHER COSTS TO BE AWARE OF WHEN PURCHASING A PROPERTY:

LAND TRANSACTION TAX (LTT): You may need to pay this if you buy property or land in Wales, this is on top of the purchase price. This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website <https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator>.

BUYING AN ADDITIONAL PROPERTY: If you own more than one residential property, you could be liable to pay a higher rate of Land Transaction Tax (sometimes called Second-Home Land Transaction Tax). This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website <https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator> - we will also ensure you are aware of this when you make your offer on a property. Also, properties in our areas are subject to higher rates of Council Tax for additional/second homes. Please ensure you check with the local authority provider as to what this will be prior to making an offer.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS - PROOF OF ID AND PROOF OF FUNDS: As part of our legal obligations to HMRC for Money Laundering Regulations, the successful purchaser(s) will be required to complete ID checks to prove their identity. Documents required for this will be a valid photo ID (e.g. Passport or Photo Driving Licence) and proof of address (e.g. a recent Utility Bill/Bank Statement from the last 3 months). Proof of funds will also be required, including any bank or savings statements from the last 3 months & a mortgage agreement in principle document, if a mortgage is required. Please ensure you have these in place at the point you make an offer on a property so as to save any delays.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX: If you are selling an additional property, or a property with land, you may be liable to pay Capital Gains on the gains made on the property. Please discuss this with an accountant to find out if any tax will be liable when you sell your home. More information can be found on the Gov.UK website here -
<https://www.gov.uk/capital-gains-tax>
