This versatile property will appeal to a wide market but most obviously to those with equestrian or hobby farming interests, being of manageable size with a useful range of both modern and traditional buildings and having a good mix of pasture and meadow.

The well planned, well appointed bungalow provides excellent two bedroom accommodation in its current form but does offer scope for extension/alteration (subject to planning) should prospective purchasers wish.

The bungalow benefits from uPVC double glazing and gas central heating throughout. The boiler was replaced in 2021 with the bungalow completely rewired and refurbished at the same time.

A useful porch gives way to a well appointed kitchen with utility area at one end. There is a comprehensive range of base and wall units with integrated dishwasher, oak block work surfaces and a 1 ½ bowl stainless steel sink and drainer. There is plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer and there is an electric cooker point. The focal point of the kitchen is an electric four oven Aga with extractor hood above. The kitchen has a door to the front hall and also a connecting door to a very pleasant L shaped living/dining room with glazed double doors opening onto the patio and a large window with far reaching views over the surrounding countryside. There is a flame effect gas fire set in a wooden surround with granite back and hearth.

The hallway has an external door to the front and a loft access point. The well appointed bathroom provides a panelled bath, w.c., wash basin on a wall mounted drawer unit, separate corner shower cubicle, chrome ladder style towel rail and an extractor fan. There are two bedrooms, the larger of which has a comprehensive range of fitted wardrobes.
