

140 Constitution Hill | | Norwich | NR3 4BB

Guide Price £700,000

Gilson Bailey are delighted to offer The Constitution Tavern, a truly unique former public house converted into a stunning residence with a self-contained two bedroom annex, situated in the sought-after NR3 area of Norwich. Originally dating back to 1864 and rebuilt in 1933 by RG Carter for Bullards Brewery, the property was stylishly converted in 2012 and now provides versatile accommodation of up to seven bedrooms, ideal for large or multi-generational families or those seeking potential rental income with excellent Airbnb potential. The main house features a welcoming entrance hall leading to a superb open-plan living area with original oak parquet flooring, feature fireplace and dual-aspect bay windows with wooden shutters. The impressive modern kitchen boasts high-end cabinetry, central island with toughened glass worktops, atrium and quality integrated appliances. Also on the ground floor are two en-suite double bedrooms, utility room, WC, side lobby and cellar access. Upstairs are three further bedrooms, with the main bedroom enjoying an en-suite shower room and large bay window, alongside a family bathroom. An impressive decked roof terrace with glass balustrade provides a great space for relaxing and entertaining. Outside, a newly laid driveway provides ample parking, with a private garden beyond. The self-contained annex has its own driveway for two vehicles and comprises a light-filled open-plan kitchen/living area with vaulted ceiling and French doors, two bedrooms and a stylish shower room with underfloor heating, along with its own enclosed garden and raised terrace. The annex also offers potential for a garage or cart lodge, while the main garden features lawn, paved seating areas, attractive planters and a garden shed. Combining history, character, generous accommodation and superb versatility, this truly impressive home presents an opportunity in NR3!, so be quick to book a viewing.
