The ground floor provides a range of well-proportioned reception rooms, including a bay-fronted living room, a spacious formal dining room with doors leading directly to the garden, and a study, offering flexibility for family life and entertaining. The entrance hall features striking geometric tiles, while both the living and dining rooms include open fireplaces and benefit from high ceilings, dado rails, and traditional detailing throughout. To the rear, the kitchen and breakfast room provide a practical space with direct access to the garden.

Across the upper floors are six generously sized bedrooms, including a bay-fronted main bedroom with an en suite bathroom. Several bedrooms retain original fireplaces and further period features such as dado rails, adding to the home's character. The home features two bath/shower rooms and a downstairs cloakroom with a toilet and washbasin. The main family bathroom is fitted with a freestanding bath and a separate shower. A utility room is conveniently located on the first floor alongside additional well-placed facilities. The layout offers excellent versatility for family living, accommodating guests or home working.

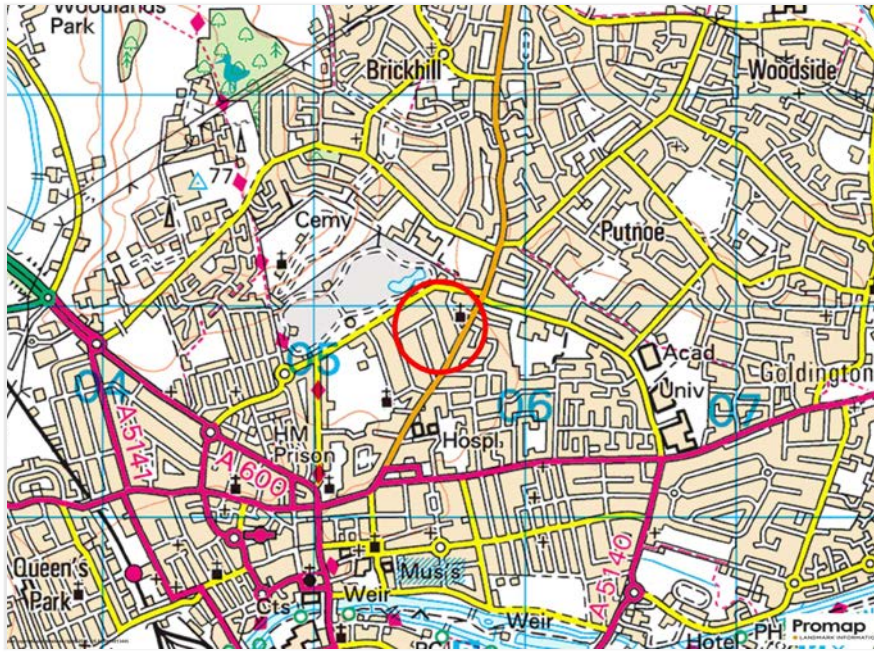

Outside, the private rear garden is enclosed by an attractive brick wall and is mainly laid to lawn, with mature trees and established shrubs creating a sense of privacy. The garden also features a water feature and a summer house, ideal for relaxation.
