Guide Price £230,000

A RARELY AVAILABLE THREE BEDROOM 1960'S PRE-FABRICATED BUNGALOW with an AGRICULTURAL TIE, IN NEED OF UPDATING and MODERNISATION, situated in just over A QUARTER OF AN ACRE, SURROUNDED BY OPEN FIELDS AND FARMLAND, all being offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Nestled amidst the beautiful rolling countryside on the Gloucestershire, Herefordshire and Worcestershire borders, Bromsberrow is a highly sought-after rural village offering an enviable blend of peaceful country living and excellent connectivity. Situated just a few miles from the thriving market town of Ledbury, the village enjoys a picturesque setting at the foot of the Malvern Hills, surrounded by open farmland, orchards and scenic walking routes.

Rich in character and community spirit, Bromsberrow is home to the historic St Mary's Church, a well-regarded primary school, village hall and recreational facilities, creating a welcoming environment for families and those seeking a traditional village lifestyle.

Despite its tranquil setting, the village benefits from excellent transport links, with the M50 motorway just minutes away, providing convenient access to Gloucester, Cheltenham, Worcester and Birmingham. The nearby town of Ledbury offers an extensive range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, supermarkets and a mainline railway station with direct services to Hereford, Worcester, Birmingham and London.

Bromsberrow combines the charm of a quintessential English village with modern-day convenience, making it an ideal location for those seeking a relaxed rural lifestyle without compromising on accessibility.
