Picture yourself pulling up to your own detached family home, knowing you have the space, privacy and flexibility that so many buyers search for but rarely find. This beautifully positioned three bedroom detached property in Rainham offers exactly that, combining practical family living with the features that genuinely make everyday life easier.

From the moment you step inside, there is a welcoming sense of space and flow. The lounge provides a bright and comfortable place to unwind after a long day, while the separate dining room creates the perfect setting for family meals, entertaining friends or even working from home if needed. The conservatory adds another valuable living space, flooded with natural light and offering a lovely connection to the outside.

For busy family life, the downstairs cloakroom brings added practicality, while upstairs three well proportioned bedrooms provide comfort and flexibility for growing families, guests or home working. The principal bedroom enjoys its own en suite shower room, giving you that extra touch of privacy and convenience.

Outside, the home continues to impress with a garage and driveway to the rear, offering secure parking and valuable storage.

Location is another major part of the appeal. Rainham continues to be one of Medway's most popular areas, known for excellent local amenities, strong transport links and a great sense of community. Whether you are commuting, upsizing or simply looking for more space, this home offers a lifestyle as well as a property.

Homes offering detached accommodation, multiple reception spaces and a garage in this price range attract strong demand, making this an opportunity not to miss. PA1009
