Denise White Agent Comments

Situated in the heart of the desirable village of Rudyard, located on the Staffordshire/Cheshire border, Camrose Hall is a distinguished four-bedroom, detached residence that expertly combines period elegance with contemporary design. Originally built in 1891, this property offers a unique opportunity for discerning buyers seeking a spacious home with outstanding views alongside a self-contained annex, ideal for generating rental income or accommodating extended family.

Upon entering, you are greeted by an inviting entrance hall that leads through to the home's generous proportions and stylish interior. The impressive sitting room serves as a warm welcome, featuring a wood-burning stove, stone mullion windows, and a window seat, adding character to the space. The traditional dining kitchen complements a separate dining room which has the stone mullion windows again and is a perfect for entertaining or hosting family gatherings.

The upper level includes three sunlit family bedrooms, each equipped with fitted furniture for added convenience. The designer, luxury, bathroom boasts a roll-top freestanding bath and a separate shower cubicle, finished with marble-style fully tiled walls and flooring.

Access to the lower ground floor is gained via a cloakroom at the half landing, which has recently been refurbished. The self-contained accommodation on this level has been meticulously renovated, featuring its own entrance. A spacious reception hallway can easily accommodate a study area, while the fully equipped kitchen includes fitted appliances. The open-plan dining/sitting room flows into a sizeable double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, providing comfortable living quarters alongside a modern shower room.

Externally, Camrose Hall benefits from beautifully landscaped gardens to the side and rear, featuring meandering paths, a rockery, and an elevated sun terrace that offers stunning views over Rudyard. Ample off-road parking is available through a gated access driveway, framed by stone pillars that enhance the entrance's aesthetic appeal. Additionally, a separate plot houses a detached garage, presenting potential for extension, along with a small woodland area at the rear of the garage.

This exceptional property is a rare find, offering a harmonious blend of historical charm and modern amenities, making it a perfect choice for those seeking a luxurious family home in an idyllic setting.

Location

Rudyard is a particularly pretty lakeside village where Rudyard Lake provides some of the most dramatic scenery to be found in the Staffordshire Moorlands. The Lake covers some 168 acres and is over 2.5 miles long.

Rudyard is located in the county of Staffordshire, West Midlands, three miles north-west of the town of Leek, eight miles north-east of the major city of Stoke-on-Trent and lies three miles east of the Cheshire border with Macclesfield approximately 10 miles away.

The house has the most beautiful views and is only a short walk away from Hotel Rudyard which is lakeside hotel with stunning gardens and views providing family dining and a great Sunday carvery. The Roaches and the Peak District National Park can be reached in 10 minutes. The surrounding area is ideal for scenic walks.
