COUNTRY

The property is found at the end of a shared private drive in a rural location surrounded by fields and open countryside. At the top of the drive is Winchelsea railway station from where there is an hourly service to Eastbourne and Ashford with high speed connections to London St Pancras (37 minutes). The Ancient Town of Winchelsea, one of the few examples of a bastide town in England with wide, regular streets arranged around a giant square and the church is about half a mile distant. Local facilities include The Little Shop, a grocery/everyday convenience shop, together with a public house and primary school. For more comprehensive facilities there is the Cinque Port of Rye within 3 miles, famed for its period Citadel, cobbled ways and medieval fortifications. The locality offers a varied range of leisure facilities including both coastal and countryside walks, sailing, fishing and bird watching on the local marshes and Rye Harbour Nature Reserve.

No.2 is a mid terraced cottage just one of four former rail workers cottages with part brick and part painted pebble dash external elevations set with double glazed windows beneath a pitched tiled roof.
