This will sometimes distort the image slightly and also has the potential to make a room look larger. Please, therefore, refer also to the room measurements detailed within this Brochure.

Offered with no onward chain, this attractive period cottage is set in a highly sought-after village and enjoys a lovely open aspect to the rear. Rich in character, featuring window shutters, cast-iron radiators in several rooms and a tiled hallway floor. The dining room, open plan to the kitchen, is enhanced by a traditional Rayburn stove, while the sitting room provides a cosy focal point with its log burner. A rear conservatory makes the most of the outlook, leading onto a pleasant garden that provides an inviting space to relax. The property also benefits from the rare advantage of off-street parking in this location. The village is well regarded, home to a popular gastro pub known for excellent food and a welcoming country atmosphere.

The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hall, dining room open plan to kitchen, sitting room, rear conservatory, WC, three bedrooms and a bathroom. The cottage offers a wonderful opportunity for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a character home in a prime village setting.
