Bellfield sits in a prime position in the sought-after Black Park area of Inverness, with spectacular and uninterrupted views over the Beaully Firth. Built in 1993, this substantial detached family home extends to approximately 343m² and offers wonderfully flexible, generously proportioned accommodation throughout. A rare chance to put your own stamp on a home in a truly exceptional and rarely available setting.

The house has been designed to take full advantage of the incredible views from all the principle rooms. The ground floor offers four reception areas, including a sunken lounge, a family room/sun lounge, and a sun porch, in addition to a spacious open-plan kitchen/diner. The generous kitchen has ample base and wall units and offers integrated appliances including a gas hob, electric oven, extractor, microwave, fridge/freezer and dishwasher. Two further ground floor rooms provide additional flexibility, one is currently used as a home office – and could equally serve as bedrooms, a playroom, snug or hobby room, depending on a buyer's needs. There is also a large family bathroom and a useful utility room and WC.

Upstairs offers three further bedrooms, each with its own ensuite, making this an ideal home for a family or for those who enjoy hosting guests. There is excellent fitted storage throughout the house, as well as a partially floored loft, with ladder, for additional storage. The property benefits from double glazing and oil fired central heating. An integral double garage and driveway parking for at least eight vehicles complete the picture.

Outside, the gardens are a real highlight, mature and established, extending to around half an acre, with plenty of trees, shrubs and planting. A putting green sits immediately in front of the house and a patio makes the most of the stunning Beaully Firth views. A BBQ hut adds to the outdoor entertaining space and there is direct access into the neighbouring woods ideal for dog walkers.
